WELCOME TO THE BIANCO

A tidy and compact entryway creating a very cosy and contemporary living space. Our pick for this home is the eye-catching brickwork of the Woodvale facade, which will look bold and fit in with outer city surroundings. For a more contemporary appeal, we'd suggest either a Traditional or Lawson facade.

Each room is given the space that it needs for everyday living, while still staying connected to a central hall that keeps the family closer. It's just a short walk away from private spaces like the three bedrooms to the spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and family room towards the rear of the home. Cleverly designed to also tuck a laundry and bathroom before those shared spaces.

Aside from a family space that offers the very best of shared living at the rear of the home, each bedroom is optimally placed to allow for a nice burst of natural light.

Each room is given the space that it needs for everyday living, while still staying connected to a central hall that keeps the family closer. It's just a short walk away from private spaces like the three bedrooms to the spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and family room towards the rear of the home. Clever design has been used to tuck a laundry and bathroom right before those shared spaces, too.
